EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In claim 1, line 5, between "signal," and "and", insert --transmitting the m-bit binary signal over the bus of m leads--

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Andre M. Szuwalski on 12/13/2007.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to teach a circuit and method for the synchronous transmission of an  $n$ -bit binary signal through a bus of  $m$  leads, wherein  $m < n$ , the method comprising: compressing the  $n$ -bit binary signal to be transmitted in such a way as to reduce its number of bits to an  $m$ -bit binary signal, transmitting the  $m$ -bit binary signal over the bus of  $m$  leads, and decompressing the  $m$ -bit binary signal transmitted through the bus until its number of bits is again equal to the  $n$ -bit number of the  $n$ -bit binary signal; the apparatus comprising: a plurality of input terminals receiving the  $n$  signals, the  $n$  signals including a first and a second signal selected for encoding the first signal on the second signal; a logic means that monitors the first signal and the second signal to ascertain changes between two successive clock pulses, wherein when the first signal has changed in the clock period preceding the reading clock pulse, the encoded signal is a signal that differs from the second signal by the fact that it is inverted when the second signal has not changed or has changed in the clock period preceding the reading clock pulse, wherein encoding the first signal onto the second signal comprises generating an output signal having a state which matches a state of the second digital signal, the decoding comprising generating an output having a state at a given clock edge which matches a state of the encoded digital signal.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
